Hi Honey,

Another week has gone by and I am a week closer to being with the ones I love. This past week just seemed to fly by. Hope they all will go that fast now.

Received a letter from you and a letter from Irene yesterday. Irene wrote a real long letter and brought me up to date on Mom, Betty and the rest of them up north. Said she had talked to you and was glad that we had a good time and that we all got home safely.

I wrote to Irene a few minutes ago and I asked her if she would mind taking care of the children if we ~~we~~ go to Hawaii for our anniversary. Honey, I hope that she can and that I will be able to get the leave.

I gave you the wrong dates in the last letter. I would like to meet you on the 4th of June instead of the third.

You could come in on the 3d and stay at St. Gerussey overnight.

Honey, I am sure we could afford the trip. I could ~~buy~~ buy your ticket at Ton Son Nhut (in Saigon) and would save quite a bit of money as there would be no tax. I am sure I could get a chance to go up there before the middle of May. That would give me enough time to mail it to you. Let me know how much it would cost there and then I will check the price here and see what the difference would be. Honey, I am counting so much on being able to be with you on our anniversary. Things will just have to go right for us.

Well, I finally got careless today and as I was running down the stairs I twisted my ankle real bad. Had it X-rayed but no broken bones showed up. Sure is a bad sprain though. Had an ice pack on it today. It seems to be swollen a lot now.

There goes my exercise program for a few weeks. Hope it straightens up real soon as I would like to continue with the exercises. Have to go back and have it checked again tomorrow. I had been running up and down the steps every day. Guess I should have known better. I will let you spank me when we meet again (Ha).

I have a new boss now. My other boss just took over as company commander today. I guess he is still my boss but in a different capacity. My new boss is Lt Skewitz. (Sounds Jewish) and he is. Should get along pretty good. He is also the Postal Officer for the brigade. Seems like a nice officer.

Sure hope you and the boys are completely over your sickness now. You sure do have your hands full when they are all sick at once.

Was off yesterday afternoon and was also off this afternoon because of my ankle. They told me to stay in bed 24 hours then come back. I didn't go to bed but sat out in the sun and put an ice pack on my ankle. Got my legs a little bit sunburned.

I have heard of people playing so-called jokes like the ones that are being used on Pat. Some people sure do have a strange way of seeking fun. Hope no one starts bothering you. That type of joke is normally pretty isolated so I doubt if anyone else in the same neighborhood will be bothered with the same.

Honey, I will be so glad when I get home so we can start living a normal happy life again.

hugs and kisses to Sam, Dave, and Dennis. All of my love to you forever. God bless all of you.

Love,
Bob
