

Dec. 20,2002

Dear Lil.

I,m finally getting around to write to you. I had a miserable cold for the past three or four weeks. I still have trouble breathing though my nose. My resistance to colds have gone the way of my hair.

I,m glade Bob is doing better. the only exercise I get, is walking my dog every morning.Using a treadmill is a good idea.

When we are upstate during the summer, all the mail is forward to me .NO problem there.

I have a amplifier on my telephone that I bought from the telephone Co. I thought it would help, but amplification is not the only problem. I can hear sound, but speech is distorted to me.As long as I can hear emergency vehicals I can still drive my car, my eyes are O.K.

I have the same problem you and Irving have, I love to eat. I am 175 lbs. I gained most of it during the summer. We eat out at the quaint country p~~aces~~aces. Most of them serve home made breads and rolls.

I dont smoke, I dont drink, I dont gamble what else is there, but enjoy eating.

Im enclosing a picture of Jackie and me taken last summer at a j~~apanese~~apanese place in Swan Lake N.Y. Two A.K.s

I dont have a computer,I really dont need one.Like I told Irving, I typ~~e~~e with two fingers, one on each hand and not to good at that.

I still make minor repairs on my own tv,s and vcr,s. In most cases its cheaper to buy a new one .

I accidentally touched the wrong key.Sorry about that. My typing stinks.

Jackies eyesight is bad. She cant read unless she uses a powerfull magnefing glass. Our locale library sends her talking books and a special cassette player at no cost.

I received a letter from Irving the other day. He said hes sending the medal the French Govt. gave,backe to them in protest the way the French Govt. is treating the Jewish problem there.

I would have kept the medal but send the letter and say I flushed it down the toilet.

Well with that bright remark, Ill end this letter

Regards to Bob and both of you stay well.

Charles

P.S. Excuse the errors and spelling,

P.S.S. HAVE A HAPPY AND HEALTHY NEW YEAR.

Chas.