Hi lil and Bob

18 Jun 04

Well it's 7:15pm (1915 for you Bob) and I just got in my room. Soaking wet cause it's so hot. You sweat just standing there.

Things are going along real well considering the Army is running this show. We've run into quite a few snags but things tend to work out. We're staying in nice barracks. I'm actually very lucky. I have a 4 man room with only 2 people in it. We also have our own bathroom so I don't have to share with 40 other women. The foods pretty decent and I just got email today.

Michelle.gipson@us.army.mil

Send me a note so I can capture the address. Dave should be getting email tonight or tomorrow David.hartley@us.army.mil (I'm fairly sure) well I have a couple more hours of work.

Tashauna and dad are okay. Tashauna is pretty lonely though. Dave talked to Leslie and Jason today. He was able to wish her a happy Birthday. She is officially 17. Love you both
Michelle
